

Find a Dietitian in the Timiskaming Region!

Dietitians are regulated healthcare professionals who work to make it easier for the public to make healthy eating choices. They translate scientific research about nutrition into practical solutions for individuals, families, and organizations. You can find dietitians working in hospitals, long-term care homes, public health units, family health teams, and in private practice to name a few.

Dietitians who work at Timiskaming Health Unit work to make the healthy eating choice the easy choice where we live, work, and play in order to improve the health of our population and prevent nutrition-related disease. You can contact a dietitian at THU if you are interested in working together to make the healthy choice the easy choice in a school, child care centre, workplace, or recreation setting. Call 705-647-4305 to learn more about this opportunity.

If you are interested in meeting with a dietitian one-on-one, this is a service available to local Family Health Team and Community Health Centre clients. Dietitians can meet with clients to discuss a variety of nutrition topics such as: infant feeding, weight management, managing a condition such as diabetes, emotional eating, sports nutrition, and many more!
